Sermon Notes John 16:12-15

The Mystery of it all.

What are some of the illustrations used to help understand the concept of the Trinity?

What did Immanuel Kant think about the theology of the Trinity and why?

What is the problem with Modalism?

What is the problem with Subordinate-ism?

So at the same time the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit are the same God and yet distinct.

Sermon Notes John 16:12-15

How can we look beyond the Trinity as a mystery to be solved?

Why is it important to keep the all the aspects of the Trinity balanced?

What are some of the lessons we can learn from the Trinity?

Footnote

Systematic theology, briefly, is the attempt by Christian theologians to craft a coherent understanding of the work of God. Typically systematic theologies are crafted from Scripture, Church tradition, and the overarching philosophy of the particular theologian who is writing. Google dictionary.

Sermon Notes John 16:12-15

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
begotten from the Father before all ages,
God from God,
Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made;
of the same essence as the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven;
he became incarnate by the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary,
and was made human.
He was crucified for us under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered and was buried.
The third day he rose again, according to the Scriptures.
He ascended to heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again with glory
to judge the living and the dead.
His kingdom will never end.

And we believe in the Holy Spirit,
the Lord, the giver of life.
He proceeds from the Father and the Son,
and with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified.
He spoke through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.
We affirm one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look forward to the resurrection of the dead,
and to life in the world to come. Amen.
